SCHEDULE

Morning Trip	Afternoon Trip
9:30am	2:30pm
Arrive at the River Drifters Office in Husum, Washington. Change into river clothes, get outfitted with a wetsuit, PFD and neoprene booties (River Drifters to provide), use the restroom, etc. Please avoid arriving more than 30 minutes prior to your trip meeting time. If you think you are going to arrive late, please call our office at 1-800-972-0430.
9:45am	2:45pm
Shuttle to the river put-in (two miles north of BZ corner) and unload gear. Your guides will give a safety talk and provide instructions for the basic paddle strokes you will need for a fun trip. Then, the group will put-in and start rafting! Keep in mind that every trip is different, as the weather, water flow and group dynamics all influence the trip pace.
12:45pm	5:45pm
Arrive at take-out and board shuttle back to Husum.
1:00pm	6:00pm
Arrive at River Drifters office in Husum. You'll return your River Drifters gear before changing, checking out the trip photos and heading home.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The White Salmon River offers spectacular world-class whitewater rafting and kayaking, breathtaking scenery, and dramatic basalt cliffs and waterfalls, making it one of the most beautiful and adventurous river day trips in the West. Located just 70 miles from the Portland/Vancouver area in the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area, it's accessible to locals and visitors alike.

Nature lovers will appreciate the clear blue waters of this designated Wild and Scenic River fed by the glaciers of Mt Adams. Salmon are returning to the White Salmon River after 100-year-old Condit Dam was removed in 2011, the largest dam removed in the U.S. at the time. Thrill-seekers will love running the big and numerous rapids and (water-level depending) 10-foot-high Husum Falls, the tallest commercially floatable waterfall in the U.S. Even beginners will embrace this rafting experience, as our knowledgeable guides teach the basic skills and paddle strokes needed to have a fun and memorable trip.

Thanks to a partnership with a local landowner, most of our trips start – water-level depending – about two miles upstream of BZ Corner (the normal commercial put-in) in a deep, craggy canyon. Triple Drop is the first rapid (Class IV) that you'll brave before heading downstream through 10 additional heart-pumping Class III-IV rapids. Water level depending, your trip will culminate with an electrifying drop (optional) down 10-foot-high Husum Falls, an experience you're likely to remember.

TRIP DETAILS

Guides

Our guides are accomplished in outdoor skills, trained in first aid, CPR and river rescue, and knowledgeable about the natural and cultural history of the area. They are fun, interesting people who have a passion for rivers and guiding. If you have questions about rafting or the unique features of the White Salmon River, ask and they will be happy to share what they know.

Weather

During the summertime, the weather in the Columbia River Gorge is very warm and mostly dry. However, you must be prepared for rain and wind in every season. It's also important to note that the temperature of the glacially fed White Salmon rarely rises above 45°F. Below is a chart of average temperatures and rainfall in the Husum, WA area during the rafting season.

	May	June	July	Aug	Sept
Avg Temp Day	69°F	74°F	82°F	82°F	76°F
Avg Temp Night	45°F	51°F	55°F	54°F	46°F
Rainfall	1.3"	.87"	.28"	.31"	.92"

Prior to packing for your trip, we recommend that you check the forecast at: riverdrifters.net/white-salmon.

TRECHEROUS TERRAIN

There are a couple of spots along the route that require walking on slippery rocks — both at the river put-in and take-out as well as portaging (when necessary) around Husum Falls and BZ Falls. Our guides will spot you while helping you navigate obstacles.

GEAR

Your comfort is our top priority. River Drifters provides all necessary rafting gear, and makes sure that you have professional, experienced and well-trained guides. If you have any questions about the gear list, please call our office at 1-800-972-0430.

River Drifters Provides:

- Rafting gear.
- 2-3 mil "farmer John"-style wetsuits, splash jackets, PFDs, neoprene booties and helmets.
- Shuttle to and from the river put-in and take-out.
- Professional, well-trained guides.

Guests are expected to bring the following:

- A pair of quick-drying shorts and t-shirt (wool or synthetic are best. Do NOT wear cotton), or a bathing suit to wear under wetsuit.
- Long-sleeved synthetic shirt or fleece (NO cotton) for extra warmth when outdoor temperatures are colder than 80°F.
- Waterproof sunscreen.
- Hat for sun protection.
- Sunglasses and/or prescription eyeglasses or contacts.
- Sunglass strap for both sunglasses and prescription eyeglasses (we sell these in our shop).
- Change of clothes for drive home.

OPTIONAL

- Bike gloves to protect hands while paddling.
- Waterproof camera.
- Small daypack.
- Personal snacks.
- Personal water bottle.

Gear Check

- Wear clothing that you don't mind getting wet and dirty.
- As there is no cell service on the river, we encourage guests to leave their cell phones and smartphones in their cars to avoid water damage or loss.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is tipping appropriate?

Our guides work very hard throughout the season to ensure that guests have an enjoyable trip. As such, tips are very much appreciated by our guides. Tips normally range from 10% of the trip cost. How much you tip should depend on your satisfaction with your trip and your financial means. Most people tip the lead guide, who will split the money equally among the crew.

Is this trip appropriate for kids?

The White Salmon half-day trip is appropriate for most kids age 8 and older. A child's maturity level and weight would be a greater factor than their age. Please call us to discuss your situation.

To ensure everyone's enjoyment, we ask that families follow our recommendations for bringing children on the White Salmon River:

- March–May: Only children age 12 and older
- May–August: Only children age 8 and older
